Absent, Excused — Ramsay.

Absent — Carona; Hartnett; Wilson.

The invocation was offered by Reverend K. Ray McDowell, Grace Church of the Nazarene, Austin, as follows:

Our Heavenly Father, you are the giver of life, and your glory fills this place. On this our first president's day of birth, we are reminded that it has been your pleasure to provide this country and this state with great leaders. George Washington was only a man but in your purpose he became a central figure in the rise of our grand nation.

Lord, we believe that great leaders still serve us today. Would you favor and bless these men and women who serve the distinguished State of Texas. Endow them this morning and always with right understanding, pure purposes, and sound judgment. Lift them above self-seeking and party zeal. Through them cleanse our society from every evil, and enable them to promote your good. Out of their adherence to your will, bring the people of this state a peace and prosperity that only you can deliver.

It is to your honor and glory, and in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, we pray this, amen.
